

Winnebago Industries Promotes Bryan Weringa to Internal Controls Compliance Manager

November 14, 2005

FOREST CITY, IOWA, November 14, 2005 – Winnebago Industries, Inc. (NYSE: WGO), announced that Bryan Weringa has recently been promoted to the new position of Internal Controls Compliance Manager. This position reports to the Controller of the Company.

In this new position, Weringa is responsible for Winnebago Industries' internal controls compliance, particularly with Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404 regulations, including the development, evaluation and testing of internal controls over financial reporting.

Weringa has served as a general accountant since joining Winnebago Industries in 1999.

He graduated from Spencer College, Spencer, Iowa with an Associates of Applied Science degree in Advanced Accounting; and Briar Cliff University, Algona, Iowa campus with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting and Business Administration.

A native of Elmore, Minnesota; Weringa, his wife, Tanya; and their three children live in Lakota, Iowa.

About Winnebago Industries

Winnebago Industries, Inc., is a leading United States manufacturer of motor homes, self-contained recreation vehicles used primarily in leisure travel and outdoor recreation activities. The Company builds quality motor homes under the Winnebago and Itasca brand names with state-of-the-art computer-aided design and manufacturing systems on automotive-styled assembly lines. The Company's common stock is listed on the New York, Chicago and Pacific Stock Exchanges and traded under the symbol WGO. Options for the Company's common stock are traded on the Chicago Board Options Exchange. For access to Winnebago Industries investor relations material, to add your name to an automatic email list for Company news releases or for information on a dollar-based stock investment service for the Company's stock, visit,

<http://www.winnebagoind.com/html/company/investorRelations.html>