In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of shareholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such shareholder may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be), for election to such position(s) as specified in the Corporation's notice of meeting, if the shareholder's notice required by paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this By-Law with respect to any nomination shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the 120th day prior to the date of such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to the date of such special meeting or, if the first public announcement of the date of such special meeting is less than 100 days prior to the date of such special meeting, the 10th day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment of a special meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a shareholder's notice as described above.

(c)(1) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this By-Law shall be eligible to serve as directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of shareholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this By-Law. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation (such articles, as they may be amended and/or restated from time to time being referred to herein as the "Articles of Incorporation") or these By-Laws, the chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made or proposed, as the case may be, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this By-Law and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this By-Law and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this By-Law, to declare that such defective proposal or nomination shall be disregarded.

Nothing in this By-Law shall be deemed to affect any rights (A) of shareholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Company's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act or (B) of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect directors if and to the extent provided for under law, the Articles of Incorporation or these By-Laws.

Section 3.2. Number, Tenure and Qualifications. The number of directors constituting the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be not more than fifteen (15) and not less than three (3), the precise number to be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors from time to time. Effective with the election of the directors at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2000, the directors shall be classified, with respect to the time for which they severally hold office, into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the Board of Directors consisting of eight (8) members existing at the time of the annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2000 to be classified as follows: Two directors to hold office initially for a term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2001, three directors to hold office initially for a term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2002, and three directors to hold office initially for a term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held in 2003, with the respective members of each class to hold office until their respective successors are elected and qualified. At each annual meeting of shareholders commencing with the annual meeting in 2001, the successors to the class of directors whose term then expires shall be elected to serve a three-year term and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the terms of any incumbent director. Any increase or decrease in the number of directors shall be apportioned among the classes so as to make all classes as nearly equal in number as possible.

Section 3.3. Regular Meetings. The regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice than these By-Laws, immediately after, and at the same place as, the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders. The Board of Directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

Section 3.4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chief Executive Officer, the President or any one director. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix the time for holding any special meetings of the Board of Directors so called, but the place shall be the same as the regular meeting place unless another place is unanimously agreed upon at the time and ratified by appropriate resolution, provided, however, any Director may attend a special meeting by telephone or online meeting service if they so choose and arrangements shall be made to allow them to attend in such fashion, provided further, that any such telephonic or online attendance at the meeting must allow for all of the director(s) to simultaneously hear each other during such meeting.

Section 3.5. Notice of Meetings. Notice of the time, date and place of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given, orally or in writing, by the person or persons calling the meeting to all Directors at least at least ninety-six (96) hours prior to the meeting if the notice is mailed, or at least forty-eight (48) days prior to the meeting if such notice is given by telephone, in person, facsimile, electronic mail or other electronic transmission, or overnight courier. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the expressed purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 3.6. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the whole board, designate from among its members an Executive Committee and one or more other committees. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that no such committee shall have such authority in reference to any matter for which such authority is specifically reserved to the full Board of Directors by the terms of the Iowa Business Corporation Act, as amended. Each such committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required.

Section 3.7. Executing Corporate Contracts. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or in these bylaws, the board of directors by resolution may authorize any officer, officers, agent, or agents to enter into any contract or to execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation. This authority may be general or it may be confined to one or more specific matters. No officer, agent, employee, or other person purporting to act on behalf of the corporation shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation in any way, to pledge the corporation's credit, or to render the corporation liable for any purpose or in any amount, unless that person was acting with authority duly granted by the board of directors as provided in these bylaws, or unless an unauthorized act was later ratified by the corporation.

ARTICLE IV OFFICERS

Section 4.1. Number. The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chief Executive Officer, President, Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. Such other officers, assistant officers and acting officers as may be deemed necessary, may be elected or appointed by the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person if so nominated and elected.

Section 4.2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the Corporation to be elected by the Board of Directors shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held after each annual meeting of the shareholders. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently may be. The officers of the Corporation shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify or until their death or resignation. Any officer elected by the Board of Directors may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors in office. Any vacancy occurring in any office in the Corporation shall be filled by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V NON-CERTIFICATED STOCK

Today's dividend declaration represents a 50% or $0.06 per share increase from the previous quarter.

With this announcement, Winnebago Industries has paid a quarterly cash dividend to common stockholders of record for the last 29 quarters.

"We are pleased to significantly increase the dividend for our shareholders," said Winnebago Industries Chief Financial Officer Bryan Hughes. "This action further reflects the company's strong financial position and the sustained appeal of our portfolio of premium outdoor lifestyle brands which leads to a high level of confidence in our future."

Winnebago Industries also announced today it will be shifting its corporate headquarters address from Forest City, Iowa to Eden Prairie, Minnesota, effective December 1, 2021. The company's executive offices have been in Minnesota since 2016. There is no planned job loss as a result of the headquarters transition and this action has no physical implication on any manufacturing assets.

"Winnebago Industries has transformed into a broad outdoor lifestyle company with a premium portfolio of brands and products," said Winnebago Industries President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael Happe. "Over the past several years, through strategic growth investments, we have expanded our company's footprint to now include locations in Iowa, Indiana, Florida and Minnesota. Our Twin Cities location has been and will continue to be an effective resource for executing our vision as a premier outdoor recreation enterprise, as it supports the growth of all of our strong brands. We are genuinely proud of our historical roots in Forest City and the incredible contributions of all our past and current Iowa employees to the company's success through the years."

Winnebago Industries currently employs approximately 6,500 employees with approximately 100 employees based out of its Eden Prairie office. Following the transition, Winnebago Industries will remain strongly rooted in North Iowa. The company's Iowa operations will continue to be the manufacturing hub of Winnebago motorhome and specialty vehicles products and currently employs approximately 2,100 people with plans to add team members in the next twelve months to meet increased demand for Winnebago RV products. The company continues to implement major infrastructure and economic investments to support employees, training and job growth at its North Iowa campuses including:

- Providing multi-year support totaling $500,000 to the John V. Hanson Career Center, an initiative to provide students with educational opportunities and skills in high demand areas including advanced manufacturing.
- Initiating a hiring campaign to meet increased demand in Winnebago RVs and the need to add additional new team members in North Iowa over the next year.
- Implementing facility improvements and expanding motorhome manufacturing capacity

"North Iowa has been home to Winnebago Industries for 63 years and it will remain a critical community for current operations and future growth," said Huw Bower President, Winnebago Outdoors. "We are committed to supporting North Iowa and being active contributors to the community as we strive to further develop our storied Winnebago brand by driving it to new heights through a relentless focus on quality, service and innovation."
