FOREST CITY, Iowa, Sep 09, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) --

Winnebago Industries, Inc. (NYSE:WGO), one of the nation's leading motor home manufacturers, celebrated 40 years of trading on the New York Stock Exchange on Thursday, September 9, 2010.

In commemoration of the event, Company representatives took part in the Closing Bell ceremony to officially close trading on the NYSE floor today. Participating in the event were: Winnebago Industries' Chairman, CEO and President Bob Olson; VP-CFO Sarah Nielsen; and Public Relations and Investor Relations Manager Sheila Davis. Winnebago Industries joined the NYSE on September 9, 1970.

"We are very proud of our partnership with Winnebago Industries", said Scott Cutler, Executive Vice President, NYSE Euronext. "We are excited to celebrate this milestone with them and look forward to continuing our prosperous relationship for many years to come."

"Ringling the closing bell on the NYSE was a very special moment," said Winnebago Industries Chairman, CEO and President Bob Olson. "We were humbled to participate in an event with this organization that has such a long and remarkable history. Our 40-year tenure on the New York Stock Exchange has been very rewarding in an age when many companies have not been as fortunate."

While in New York, Winnebago Industries personnel also met with several of the Companies' investors and potential investors to review the Company and the RV industry.
